Mary's Update

Dear Prayer Warriors,

I apologize for my recent lack of communication, however, I was unable to do so due to exhaustion which was the culmination of the trials and health problems I have had these past two years. Thus, last summer, I had to take a three month break, even though my condominium renovations were still incomplete. During that time, one of my supporting churches, Munich International Community Church (MICC), showed me great kindness as the body of Christ. They hosted me while I was recuperating thus enabling me to regroup. The fellowship and encouragement that I experienced among these saints was precious and I am grateful to the Lord for all of them.

Immediately, after my break in September, 2013, I tried to resume a full workload. I was instructing two women who were from the USA and Belgium with specialized training while also attending to the condominium renovations. As a result, I became burnt out; sick with dizziness and unbalanced in the body. In God's goodness, He advised others to confirm in me the need to retreat and completely heal before resuming my ministry work. I took this advice and tried to take it easy in various ways.

After thirteen long months, the condominium renovations were finally completed. While resting in God's presence, I took time out to create a wonderful atmosphere around the condominium by planting flowers and vegetables to make a beautiful garden. Each morning during my quiet time, I get to enjoy God's handiwork of orchids, roses and green plants while conversing with Him. I thank Him for using these things therapeutically to quickly restore me to good health. I hope you will also enjoying the beauty of my garden as you look at these next two pictures.

I am glad to report that on March 22, we had a women's conference at my newly renovated condominium, for the first time. A men's conference also took place at my neighbor, Bruce MacLean's home, since he is my co-worker. I was excited to see that God began this wonderful ministry for women and men at the same time. I am no longer alone in discipleship because Bruce and his family have been called to the same ministry, except for men instead of women. We trust God will do even greater works among us while we make ourselves available to reach out to men and women in Thailand and our neighboring countries.

Thank you very much friends, for standing with me in prayer and supporting me financially.
