*"I will give thanks to the Lord
with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonders."*

Psalm 9:1

Mary (Noi) 's Update

Dear Prayer Warriors,

As my sabbatical year is coming to an end, I would like to share with you my thankfulness to our great God for all He has done throughout 2015:

- I was able to catch up with unfinished financial reports and budgeting.
- I had enjoyable visits with my existing supporters that reside throughout various states.
- While suffering with severe allergies and macular degeneration, God provided in amazing ways, good and kind doctors for every treatment that I needed.
- God, in His faithfulness, orchestrated my paths that led me to partner with Advancing Native Missions (ANM) this summer. This is a blessing for Thailand Women's Ministry (TWM).
- God provided me with a nice place to stay, and a car to drive throughout the whole summer. Many thanks to my wonderful hosts, Mr. & Mrs. Morgan.
- God opened doors for me at several churches, to share my testimony and speak about TWM; many lives were touched.
- I was honored by the Lord to be one of the guest speakers at the annual retreat of ANM, where 370 Christian leaders from all over the US and other countries attended.
- Some of my financial support has been raised (I am trusting God for the remaining 60%).

I am thankful to the Lord for Ping and Benz who in my absence have been making an impact in the lives of the women in their Bible study groups. To God be the glory.

Benz' (circled in photo) Update:

This past summer, God laid a burden on my heart which was to focus my attention particularly on the spiritual needs of the people in the Chattanooga area. When I submitted to His guidance, His peace began to flow in my heart. My new Bible study group is studying, "The Story of Hope". It's about God's redemptive plan that is from Genesis through Revelation. It will help people clearly understand, and genuinely embrace the true gospel. God has given me such a diverse group; there are believers, non-believers, and their children. One of the ladies, who previously did not believe in God's existence, now believes that He is the creator of all things. Everyone, including the children, enjoys the study, and they all are faithful attendees. Please join me in prayer, asking that the non-believers may turn to the Lord and be saved. It's an exciting experience to follow God's guidance by faith toward an unknown future!

Ping's (circled in photo) Update:

Front L-R: Chan, Mee, Ping

As we continue to seek God's will for our lives, I'm in awe of what He has been revealing to all of us. The ladies are becoming more aware of their sins in different areas, as well as their need to depend on God in all that they do. As a result, they are re-surrendering their life to Him each week. Yes, the Lord yearns for us to glorify Him in all we do, by bearing the imperishable fruit of the Holy Spirit so that our family members and neighbors may see Christ in us. In God's power, we want to represent the living Christ as His letter to the lost. We are glad to have an intern named Nana in our study group. If the Lord wills, she will be with us for the next three years. She prays with a sincere heart that God may make her into the woman He created her to be.

In Him,

Chanaddah Chaisakorn (aka Noi or Mary)
