“I will give thanks to the Lord according to His righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the Lord Most High.” Psalm 7:17

JANUARY, 2018

Dear Prayer Warriors,

I would like to begin 2018 with giving thanks to our great God for this past 2017. I am so grateful to the Lord for faithful supporters like each one of you. Without your faithful financial support and prayers, Thailand Women's Ministry would not be here today.

Since my monthly financial support runs short most of the time, I am grateful for the miraculous ways God has always provided for my needs. God has been my Jehovah-Jireh every month! Thank you friends, for feeding me and taking good care of me in so many ways.

For the past two years, the Lord has provided me with a wonderful eye doctor and a dentist in Harrisonburg, Virginia. I continue to receive treatments, free of charge, from both doctors whenever I am in the USA. My eye condition has improved quite a bit in the past 6 months.

In 2016, my mother and nephew went through an impossible situation when they nearly died. I am grateful to the Lord for restoring their health. God heard our cry for healing, even though they do not yet know the Lord.

God has led me to write some study material for non-believers. This study material is geared toward the Buddhists who have no concept of God. I have been working hard on it for the last six months, and it's not yet completed. However, some women have started to pilot it in their small group, and they have found it very helpful. Many people are waiting for the completion of this book so that they can use it in reaching out to non-believers.

The Lord has been opening more doors for me to teach the Word of God to the women from different churches in the north and northeastern Thailand. Women's retreats and conferences have lined-up for 2018. Although it will be a very busy year for me, I am truly excited for the opportunity of meeting the spiritual needs of the women through the gift of teaching.

New Mission Organization - MissionStream

Last, but not least, I am thankful to the Lord for providing Thailand Women's Ministry with a new mission organization as a home office. This change is very important for me as a speaker for TWM. Since I often travel to different countries beyond Thailand for speaking engagements, I constantly need official documents for visa applications. This new organization is able to provide the ministry with these official documents whenever needed. This is the main reason why I had to switch to a new mission organization.
