I waited patiently for the Lord; and He inclined to me and heard my cry. Psalms 40:1

Dear Prayer Warriors,

Thank you very much for all your prayers as well as for your loving care. I know that several of you are anxious to receive an update about my health since I last asked for prayer. I rejoice in letting you know that God heard our cries and has wonderfully restored my health. I recall the times that I cried out to the Lord for a solution to my health problems so that I could sit and function normally. I specifically asked the Lord to lead me to the right therapist who would know how to treat my back problem. God in His faithfulness, answered my prayers. After three months of receiving special weekly therapy, I am now healed and pain-free!

It's so wonderful to be able to sit, sleep, jog and work without pain in my back or shoulders. Praise the Lord!

Regarding my eye condition, ever since God provided me with a new doctor who was willing to give me the medication that I needed, my eye has improved about 80%. This is certainly a blessing from the Lord because most patients who depend on government healthcare cannot easily get this kind of special treatment. I give all the glory, honor and praise to our great God who is always faithful in answering prayers.

Over the past few weeks, I have been able to resume my writing. I have about 20% more to go before the book is complete. From this week onwards, I am focusing on preparing my talk for the up-coming events in Chiang Mai. Please keep me in prayer for these two important events on:

- April 24-26, a youth camp.
- April 29-May 3, a women's retreat.

In Him,
Mary Noi (Chanaddah Chaisakorn)
