“...‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of hosts.”
Zechariah 4:6

Dear Praying Friends,

I have exciting news to share with you. I received an endorsement of my book from Dr. John MacArthur, and wonderful reviews from Dr. Steve Lawson and other missionaries who have been serving in Thailand for many years. I am so grateful and humbled to see God's favor upon my life by having a great man of God like Dr. John MacArthur write the foreword for my book.

Back and Front of Book

Other good news is that the layout work for both the English and Thai versions of the book is finished. My team and I are working tirelessly against the clock carefully proofreading, knowing that the cost of printing is rising! There are a few more important steps that need to take place before the printing. We hope and pray that the Thai version will be printed before the end of this month and the English version by the middle of June. Thank you so much for your prayers. Please continue to pray for everything to go smoothly and for my health which is in poor condition at present. After much prayer and consideration, we believe that God wants us to self-publish the book in both languages and make the English version available through Amazon. We will notify you when the book is available for purchase (although some people have already preordered it).

More exciting news is that a Thai woman in Sydney, Australia, contacted me on Saturday morning, May 14. As I was about to begin teaching online, an email from her popped up asking about my teaching materials. As a result, I was able to immediately include her in my Bible study group online knowing that she was hungry for the Word of God.

Malivan and Samai

Malivan's Sharing: After I listened to Chanaddah's teaching on "God's Will for Women" for just one week, my life began to change in an amazing way and without any struggles. I have been married for 17 years and the conflicts between my husband and I arose within the first week of our marriage. I greatly wanted my husband to follow my agenda and when that did not happen, I often cried, feeling full of self-pity. We both were known for being actively involved in the Lord's work, but had failed terribly in our marriage relationship. Often, we wanted to get divorced yet we prayed hard and tried listening to various teachings of many famous speakers, but that did not help. Then, two weeks ago, my husband asked me to listen to Chanaddah's teaching on the roles of the wife, which he had found on her website. While listening to her teaching, the Word of God penetrated my heart and immediately caused changes in my life. Feeling totally convicted of my sin, I sought my husband's forgiveness for the first time.

As a result of this, our marriage relationship greatly improved. I used to be addicted to social media, but have now turned to Bible reading and listening to Chanaddah's teaching day and night. My friend, having noticed many of these changes in me, also repented of her sin and cried with much joy. She said, "This is the most exciting time in my marriage. My husband and I are grateful to the Lord for His goodness and mercy. Now, I realize that it's never too late for me to repent."

Samai's Sharing: For many years, I tried to resolve the problems in my marriage but without success. My wife's unsubmitive spirit and her determination to take over the leadership role in our family caused many problems between us. In desperation, I searched for teachings to help her, but they never brought any changes to her life. At last, with God's guidance, I found Chanaddah's teaching online. Within two weeks of my wife listening to the teaching, many wonderful changes began taking place in our lives and marriage. People from our church started to notice the changes in her life and so, I praise God for His miraculous work. I am thankful to the Lord for listening to my cries, and seeing the struggles we have been through all these years.

Grace, Malivan, Samai and John

Now, this couple has started sharing my teaching from my website and YouTube, to their friends. May God continue to do great works and receive all the glory and honor.
