“For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.
To Him be the glory forever. Amen.” Romans 11:36

Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you for all your prayers for my health. I am still in a lot of pain so I continue to have weekly massage therapy. I also have pain in my ribs due to a fall into an uncovered drain during Bangkok's recent flooding. I praise God for protecting me from falling deeper into the drain and for not having any broken bones. Despite the ongoing spiritual warfare, I have a lot to be thankful for, particularly the impact my book "Knowing the One True God" has had on the lives of others by bringing Godly transformation and salvation to them.

Tua and her three children: In the study, "Knowing the One True God", I learned what I should do to please God. After evaluating my walk with Him, I am now trying to abide in Him, as are my children, as they were with me during the study. In fact, at the end of the study, my son surrendered his life to Christ, making my husband and I very joyful. We are thankful to God for choosing us to study this book.

Rin: Having studied this book twice, covering the issues of God's creation, the fall of man, and the consequences of sin, I now have a deeper understanding of the One True God, His love, and His priceless redemption plan for mankind. This has improved my personal life. The book also explains the principles of witnessing and discipleship. Having had the privilege of using this book with others, I have received very good feedback.

Vun: I thank the Lord for this very exciting study book as I can now read the Bible from Genesis to Revelation with greater comprehension. My life has changed dramatically as a result of the study. I can now love the unlovable and forgive those who mistreat me because I am more receptive to the Holy Spirit. I have put my trust in God and found true peace there, grown in my faith and respect for Him.

Mam (who lives in Australia): My life was filled with deceit, jealousy and lack of love for others. I preferred a lot of attention. I would become angry with people and sever friendships if they did not do what pleased me. About 25 years ago, a Bible study cell group leader challenged me to give my life to Christ even though I knew very little about Him. I did this, hoping to improve my life. Even though I attended church and was involved in ministerial work for many years, my life changed for the worse. I struggled to get along with other believers and felt bitterness toward them. I finally stopped attending church.

My friend recently gave me the book "Knowing the One True God" and discussed with me how Chanaddah's teachings had improved her life. With a humbled heart, I read the book and began to clearly understand the gospel of Jesus. This led me to true repentance and a changed life. I no longer hold grudges and am able to forgive people. With my new life in Christ, I am content with God's love and have sought forgiveness from all whom I have wronged. I thank the Lord for leading Chanaddah to write this book.

Nawaporn: I thank the Lord for Chanaddah who has really helped us grasp God's will and Scripture. This has led me to know God and put my trust in Him. Prior to this, my faith was hazy, and I never knew how to rely on God. Now, after having studied "Knowing the One True God", my life has been transformed, I have grown spiritually, my walk with God is closer and I am a lot happier. This is an excellent study!

In Him,
