Pastor Gregg Cantelmo

Habakkuk has listened to the Lord and come to a place of acceptance, submission and joyful strength. He knows future judgment is on the way, but that God has everything in His control. Habakkuk writes a beautiful psalm revealing what he has learned.

To the God of the present, to whom we pray, he made a:

1. R _____ (vv. 1-2).
  - a. His prayer is based on a personal K _____ of God.
  - b. His prayer arises from a holy F _____ of God.
  - c. His prayer requests the A _____ of God.
  - d. His prayer anticipates the M _____ of God.

To the God of the past whose great works on behalf of His people can be:

2. R _____ (vv. 3-15).
"selah" = P _____ and T _____ about that.

To the God of the future who has all things in control, we see Habakkuk:

3. R _____ (vv. 16-19).
