

IV. Other Questions for Thought and Discussion:

- A. Why were there only seven disciples?
- B. Why do you think they would have listened to the stranger on the shore?
- C. Why did Peter dress himself before going ashore?
(Wouldn't it have been harder to swim!?)
- D. On what other occasion do we see Peter get OUT of a boat to meet the Savior?
- E. What, if any, is the significance of 153 fish in the net?
(Be careful here... Google isn't always your friend!)
- F. What, if any, is the significance of the unbroken nets?
(In particular in light of our message on Peter's calling...)
- G. Why does Jesus ask Peter, "... do you love me more than these?"

(Hint: He was asking, "Do you love me more than they – the other disciples – love me?")

- H. In what other way are we waiting for "restoration" as a result of the resurrected Christ?
